

Email Communication Policy

As in previous years, in order to save money on paper, printing, and postage costs, most communications will be sent via e-mail unless a family does not have an e-mail address. Please include your e-mail address on the registration form.

Policy effective with the 2013-2014 Religious Education year.